This wonderful four-bedroom mews house epitomises modern mews living.

The property is located moments from one of London's most convenient transport hubs, yet the tranquillity of the mews creates the feeling of being in a countryside village. The outlook from the house across Bathurst Mews is unrivalled, with direct, uninterrupted views of the multiple-time winner of the Mews in Bloom award.

The house has been meticulously refurbished and benefits from an abundance of natural light that fills every corner of its spacious, open-plan living areas. Offering four bedrooms and four bathrooms, the house lends itself to a wide range of lifestyles and provides exceptional reception and entertaining space.

LOCATION

Bathurst Mews is one of the prettiest mews streets in London and is found between Sussex Gardens and Sussex Square. Hyde Park is only moments away whilst Kensington Gardens are within walking distance. There are also excellent transport links from Paddington Station (Elizabeth line) and Lancaster Gate.
