A lateral three-bedroom mews house, in a quiet cobbled mews in Knightsbridge.

The property benefits from two reception rooms, three double bedrooms, two kitchens, a large roof terrace and a garage. An open-plan layout maximises the sense of space across all floors with high ceilings, floor-to-ceiling windows, intricate cornicing, and beautiful parquet flooring. One of the most impressive features is the feature staircase handmade by a famous French artist.

On the first floor you will find the principal suite which has a walk-in wardrobe, handcrafted by Paul Kelley designs, and an ensuite bathroom. The first floor also hosts two double bedrooms with a family bathroom. The ground and second floor boast two large open plan reception/dining rooms, and two kitchens. The large west-facing terrace is a particular highlight and provides excellent views down the mews.
