A Victorian façade with thoroughly modern three bed home behind

A striking three bedroom freehold house set within one of Holland Park's most picturesque cobbled mews. Meticulously refurbished this property pairs Victorian mews character with a thoughtfully considered contemporary interior, arranged with ease across three floors. The ground floor opens into generous entertaining space, ideal for both everyday living and hosting. The first floor is given over almost entirely to an exceptional principal suite, while the second floor offers two further bedrooms and a well-appointed family bathroom. Throughout, the house is unusually light-filled for a mews property, with rear-facing windows bringing in an abundance of natural light rarely found in this type of home.

LOCATION

Russell Gardens Mews occupies a quiet, sought-after position just a short walk from Holland Park itself, offering a rare combination of village-like calm and prime central London convenience. The mews benefits from excellent transport links and easy access to Kensington High Street, Olympia, and Shepherd's Bush, placing an exceptional range of shopping, dining, and amenities firmly within reach.
